their vendors and contractors to the Fire Victim Trust while at the same time depriving their vendors and contractors from the ability to assert their rights and defenses that they would otherwise be able to assert in response to such claims. If the Plan is not modified, the rights of vendors and contractors will be seriously impaired. CNUC, CEI, WTS, and WTSW (collectively the "Objecting Parties") are contractors the Debtors relied upon to perform important services. The Objecting Parties hereby join in the Objection of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "UCC") to Plan Confirmation. The Objecting Parties ask that the Court deny confirmation of the Plan unless the Plan is modified to expressly provide that all legal, equitable, and contractual rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors, including the Objecting Parties, remain unaltered and that the Debtors' claims that are being assigned to the Fire Victim Trust are being assigned subject to all rights and defenses of such vendors and contractors.

including the rights of the Debtors' contractors and vendors, are unimpaired. Unfortunately, various provisions of the Plan, including its injunction and release provisions, appear to adversely alter the rights of these creditors. The terms of the Plan suggest that the Debtors intend to assign claims against

II. OBJECTION

A. The Plan Impairs the Rights of the Debtors' Contractors and Vendors

The Plan provides that General Unsecured Claims in Class 4A and Class 4B are unimpaired and therefore are deemed to have accepted the Plan. The Bankruptcy Code provides, in Section 1124(1), that classes of claims are "impaired" unless the chapter 11 plan "leaves unaltered the legal, equitable, and contractual rights to which such claim . . . entitles the holder of such claim or interest." In enacting Section 1124, Congress defined impairment in the "broadest possible terms." In re L & J Anaheim Assocs., 995 F.2d 940, 942-43 (9th Cir. 1993) (quoting In re Madison Hotel Assocs., 749 F.2d 410, 418 (7th Cir. 1984)). Accordingly, "any alternation of the rights constitutes impairment even if the value of the rights is enhanced." Id. (quoting In re Acequia, 787 F.2d 1352, 1363 (9th Cir. 1986)).

The Plan improperly identifies general unsecured claimholders as unimpaired because the Plan provisions significantly alter the rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors in several important ways. The Plan either needs to treat general unsecured creditors as impaired or language should be added to the Plan to clarify that the rights of the Debtors' contractors remain unaltered by the terms of the Plan.

First, the Plan provides, with limited exceptions, for the assumption of executory contracts not specifically designated by the Debtors for rejection. See Plan, § 8.1. The Plan, in Section 8.1(c), provides that each executory contract assumed pursuant to the Plan "shall vest in, and be fully enforceable by, the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms, "except as modified by the provisions of this Plan..." Separately, Section 8.2(e) of the Plan states that assumption "shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims and Causes of Action against any Debtor or defaults by any Debtor arising under any assumed executory contract" prior to assumption. The Debtors could argue that, according to this language, contract counterparties' claims and defenses, including the defenses of setoff and recoupment, related to assumed contracts are released under the terms of the Plan. Separately, the Schedule of Assigned Contracts, in Paragraph 13, purports to strip the Debtors' contract counterparties of their indemnification rights under assumed executory contracts. It provides that the assumption of executory contracts "shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any and all contingent pre-petition indemnification obligations arising under the terms of any such agreements . . . "See Dkt. No. 7037 at p. 18.

An executory contract must be assumed or rejected in its entirety. See e.g., In re MF Global Holdings Ltd., 466 B.R. 239, 241 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) ("the trustee must either assume the entire contract cum onere, or reject the entire contract, shedding obligations as well as benefits."); In re Dewey Ranch Hockey, LLC, 406 B.R. 30 (Bankr. D. Ariz. 2009) ("It is basic bankruptcy law regarding the assumption and assignment of executory contracts that the assuming party can not assume only the benefits of a contract; rather assumption is the entire agreement, benefits and burdens."). The Debtors' proposed alteration of their contract counterparties' rights is not authorized by Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and plainly constitutes "impairment" under Section 1124. To address this concern, the Plan should be modified to provide that, notwithstanding any provisions of the Plan or the Plan Supplement, the assumption of executory contracts does not eliminate any of the rights of the Debtors' contract counterparties.

Second, pursuant to the Plan, all Assigned Rights and Causes of Action are assigned to the Fire Victim Trust. Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, defined in Section 1.8 of the Plan, include any claims that the Debtors hold against their contractors related to the Fires. See Plan, § 1.8 (defining "Assigned Rights and Causes of Action" as including claims relating directly or indirectly to the Fires, and including claims that the Debtors "may have against vendors, suppliers, third party contractors and consultants . . . ."). While the Plan is not entirely clear, numerous provisions in the Plan suggest that the Debtors' vendors and contractors may be unable to assert their rights and defenses in litigation commenced by the Fire Victim Trust against them even though the rights of the Debtors' contractors are supposedly unimpaired under the terms of the Plan. For example:

- Section 10.3 of the Plan, its general release and discharge provision, provides that each holder of a Claim waive, release and discharge the Debtors "of and from any and all Claims, Interests, rights, and liabilities that arose prior to the Effective Date."
- Section 10.6 of the Plan prohibits all persons "who have held, hold, or may hold Claims or Interests" from "commencing . . . directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind . . . against or affecting, directly or indirectly, a Debtor, a Reorganized Debtor, or an estate or the property of any of the foregoing, or any direct or indirect transferee of any property of, or direct or indirect successor in interest to, any of the foregoing Persons mentioned in this subsection . . . ."
- The channeling injunction of Plan, in Section 10.7 of the Plan, prevents the assertion "of any setoff, right of subrogation, indemnity, contribution, or recoupment of any kind, whether directly or indirectly, against any obligation due to any Reorganized Debtor or against the property of any Reorganized Debtor with respect to any 'Fire Claim.'"

In addition to the foregoing Sections of the Plan, the definitions of "Fire Claim" and "Fire Victim Claim" under the Plan are very broad and apply to any Claim against the Debtors in any way arising out of the Fires . . . ." See Plan, § 1.78. This language could be interpreted to apply to contractors' tort, contractual, and statutory claims, and theoretically could be used to prevent the contractors from bringing any defensive claims if sued by the Fire Victim Trust.

The Plan should be modified to include clarifying language providing that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action shall be transferred to the Fire Victim Trust subject to any and all rights and defenses, including but not limited to the rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors to assert rights of contribution, indemnity, setoff, and recoupment. Language should also be added to the Plan providing that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors, including the right to assert any and all defenses, including common law, statutory, or contractual rights of contribution or indemnity against the Debtors, remain unaltered and may be asserted in response to any action brought by the Fire Victim Trust or any third party claimants. <sup>1</sup>

III. CONCLUSION

As drafted, the Plan will significantly impair the rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors, including their rights to defend against claims brought by the Fire Victim Trust. This is despite the fact that they have been designated by the Debtors as "unimpaired" and are deemed to have accepted the Plan. The Plan must be modified as set forth herein so that the legal, equitable, and contractual rights of the Debtors' vendors and contractors, who have been unable to vote on the Plan, remain unaltered.
